THEATRE CALGARY COVID-19 UPDATE: ADMISSIONS AND MILLION DOLLAR QUARTET

Calgary, AB... With the health and wellness of our patrons, employees, artists, volunteers and the broader Calgary community our top priority, Theatre Calgary is cancelling all remaining performances of our current show Admissions (scheduled through April 4), and postponing Million Dollar Quartet, (scheduled through April 21 through May 24) until further notice.

"Making these decisions on Admissions and Million Dollar Quartet were not easy, as it has impacted the artists involved, Theatre Calgary's staff, craftspeople, and our patrons," says Artistic Director Stafford Arima. "However, in these most difficult of times, it is imperative that Theatre Calgary works to keep our entire community safe. My heart goes out to all who have been affected."

We are asking all our subscribers and ticket holders of Admissions and Million Dollar Quartet, to please follow these instructions:

Those with tickets to Admissions, please contact the Theatre Calgary Audience Services team for your ticket options, at 403-294-7447.

Those with tickets to Million Dollar Quartet, please hold on to your tickets as they will be valid for the rescheduled dates. We will notify them of those dates as soon as possible.

All updates, and a longer statement can be found at theatrecalgary.com.
